SYSTEM USER RESPONSIBILITIES AND UNDERTAKINGS

By signing, you declare that you have read and understood the Australian Privacy Principles (OAI) and agree to abide by them when accessing personal information in the Ready Apprentice database. You also acknowledge:

- Information Privacy: Unauthorised or intentional access, destruction, alteration or impediment to personal information is an offence under the Crimes Act 1914 (Part VIA), attracting substantial penalties including imprisonment. Unauthorised disclosure of information obtained through this access may also be an offence under Section 70 (penalty up to 2 years imprisonment).
- Access Privileges: Access only what you're authorised to use, only for as long as needed. Do not attempt to bypass security or use another user's privileges. You are responsible for all activity under your Logon ID; breaches may result in suspension and investigation.
- Confidentiality of Passwords: Passwords are sensitive and must be protected from disclosure or compromise.
- Software & Data Security: Do not violate software copyright or system integrity. Transmit data only via approved, secure channels (including encryption where required).
- Hardware Security: IT equipment must be protected from theft, damage, unauthorised access and modification.
- Reporting: Any known or suspected breach of these responsibilities must be reported immediately to Apprenticeships Northern Territory on 08 8935 8200.
